

I am opposed to the Class C airspace around Manchester, NH being reduced from 24 hour per day operations to 18 hour per day operations consistent with tower operations. The fact that the tower may have to close should not limit those airmen that use the Class C airspace.